

Wrong Site Procedure(1)

Narrative: Intravitreal medication was injected into the incorrect eye. Intravitreal medication was then injected into the correct eye.

* Any unnecessary invasive procedure or invasive procedure performed in error that carries risk for the patient constitutes an injury and performance of the correct or intended procedure then constitutes additional healthcare services.